The Union Pacific Railway yesterday brought suit against Secretary Lane, of the Department of the Interior, and Clay Tallman, of the General Land Office, to restrain them from cancelling a selection of land it received in return for certain lands taken over by the government for the creation of the Mount Ranier Na-tional Park. The petition states that A. A. Jones, of the Interior Department. disapproved of the selection on January 25, 1916, because the lands were mineral.
